HANOVER

The October meeting of the Woman's Missionary society was held recently with Mrs. W. S. Lee and Mrs. Frank Crombie as hostesses. The programme was prepared by the president, Mrs. A. H. Ladd.

Thirteen from Hanover attended the annual convention of the Society S. S. Association last week at the Church of the Good Shepherd.

Preparations are being made for the dedication and installation services for Rev. Frederick MacLeod as minister of the Congregational church, Thursday, October 27th. Rev. Charles E. Jefferson, D. D. of Broadway Tabernacle, New York, will preach the sermon.

The Stafford fair attracted several visitors from the village during the past week.

Next Sunday evening Miss Ruth L. Scabury, junior secretary of the Woman's Board, Boston, will speak at a special open meeting of the C. E. society.

Much sympathy is felt in the community for Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Allen and family in the sudden death of their daughter, Mrs. Clarence Edredge, at Willimantic, Friday morning.

What is Going On Tonight.
 Pythian Slates, Parthenon Temple, No. 2, meets at 8:30 Main street.

Thursday morning at 6 o'clock, at St. Mary's church, Harold A. Jordan, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Jordan, of Norwich, and Miss Irene M. Gilman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Gilman, of No. 352 Main street, were united in marriage by Rev. J. J. Papillon, pastor. The service was attended only by members of the two families.

Lawrence Stanley of Norwich, was best man and Miss Irene Gilman of this city was bridesmaid. The bride wore a traveling suit of blue duvetyne trimmed with moleskin and wore a black beaver hat. Her corsage bouquet was of Marchesa No. 1 roses. The bridesmaid wore a brown velvet suit trimmed with beaver and her corsage bouquet was of pink roses.

Following the ceremony a breakfast was served at the home of the parents of the bride, only members of the families attending. Mr. and Mrs. Jordan left on their honeymoon trip Thursday afternoon and will go to Pittsfield, Mass., and over the Mohawk Trail to Montreal. On their return they will reside at Stratford avenue, Norwich. Mr. Jordan is engaged in the wholesale fruit business with his father, Alexander Jordan, of Norwich.

The work of straightening out the curb line on the south side of Main street, from Bridge street to a point opposite the Kimball block, has been started but only two-thirds of the work is to be completed at this time, that from the Jordan building on Main street to Bridge street. The portion of the street running east from this point is to be left until some future date. The change in the curb line was voted following a meeting of the common council October 10th, as the curb line at this point on Main street is very irregular. In front of several of the Main street blocks at this point new concrete sidewalks are to be laid. As the curbing is moved back a portion of Main street on the southern side will be refitted with cement, carrying the cement highway to the new curb line. Work is being done by the city contractors.

In the opinion of Attorney William A. King, acting town counsel for the town of Mansfield, children sent out to board from another city to the town of Mansfield are residents of that town to the extent that they are entitled to attend schools there. Since the opening of the fall term the school committee in Mansfield has had several complaints from residents of Mansfield, Attwoodville, and Mr. Hope, in the town of Mansfield that they believed it illegal to allow the children sent to those places by the Jewish Welfare Bureau of New York city to board with Jewish families, to attend the town schools. The schools are overcrowded and the residents believed that New York city should pay a part of the expense of operating the schools. The school committee, after investigation, learned that many of the children were orphans, or children of poor parents, receiving aid from the Jewish Welfare Bureau. In order to set at the affair A. W. Buchanan, secretary of the Mansfield town school committee, asked Attorney King for an opinion which was rendered as follows:

A. W. Buchanan,
 Secretary of School Board,
 Town of Mansfield, Conn.

Dear Sir: In reply to your questions as to whether or not children sent by the Jewish Welfare Bureau to Mansfield and located in Mansfield by residents of that town are legally residents of your town in entire them to school privileges. I have looked up the matter with considerable care and feel that there is no doubt as to the status of these children. At the same time our supreme court in the case of Yale vs. Middle District, 59th Connecticut, page 493, seems to hold that the children referred to would be entitled to the school privileges in Mansfield. Two other decisions, Connecticut State Hospital for Insane vs. Brookfield, 59th Connecticut, page 1, and Keisey vs. Greene, 59th Connecticut, page 29, seem to hold to the same principle.

In view of the decisions and the attitude taken by the courts in these cases referred to, I advise you that in my opinion the children in question are entitled to school privileges of the town of Mansfield.

I am respectfully,
 W. A. KING.

Postal carriers are checking up the number of private letter boxes or receptacles for mail delivered by the city carriers. They have many local houses have no numbers. Times far they have reported that only 18 per cent. of the houses and not over 10 per cent. of the stores and offices of the city are so equipped. The local carriers began this work Wednesday after the notice had been received from Postmaster Will H. Hays, telling of the need of inaugurating a campaign for mail boxes, or someplace in the door of the house where mail could be placed. The carriers are checking homes not having receptacles for placing mail. The people are asked to purchase mail boxes of a like design and Postmaster John O'Rourke has notified local hardware dealers of the campaign asking them to prepare for sales of the boxes.

Although work of erecting the Bridge street bridge has been completed by city contractors the bridge is not to be opened for public travel for ten days to allow the cement to become thoroughly hardened. The new surface is a great improvement over the one replaced.

Levi and Clara Upson, husband and wife, were before the police court Thursday morning. The former charged with breach of the peace alleged to have been committed October 17th, and the latter with intoxication and breach of the peace. The cases were continued until this (Friday) morning as Officer Grant Peabody who made the arrest was unable to be present at court. Mrs. Upson was arrested Wednesday night upon complaint of her husband.

Captain Fred H. Williams of Canton Windham, Patriarch Militant, No. 2, I. O. O. F. of this city, has been nominated for Lieutenant Colonel of the Department of Connecticut. There are also Captains in the state and Captain Williams has the endorsement of seven of them. The election is to be held at a meeting of the department council, I. O. O. F. Militant Chapter, in New Haven, the first week in November.

Arrangements have been completed for the journey of the Willimantic Anthroed to Rockville on the evening of October 27th, when they will join Rockville Bk. in making the latter's annual success. The local organization is to take along some local talent and stage a thirty minute entertainment. On their arrival they are to take part in a street parade.

At the meeting of the Willimantic branch of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union to be held this (Friday) afternoon at the First Baptist church, Miss Grace M. Murray, state organizer of the League of Women Voters, is to speak on "Womanhood and the Government."

A large number of local property owners visited the selectmen's office in the town building Thursday when the board of assessors held their first meeting to review the tax lists of property owners in Windham.

This (Friday) afternoon the Windham eleven meets the Killingly football eleven in Willimantic. The local boys since their defeat at Norwich have worked hard and expect to reverse the score in today's game. With Sham Sullivan back in the lineup the local eleven will be greatly strengthened. The team will go on the field as in former games, stronger than when they played Norwich with three regulars out.

Mrs. J. H. Hawkins, of Mountain street, who is the wife of a local family who celebrated their birthday on that day. They were Louise Hawkins of Bolivar street, Mrs. J. Homer Hawkins of Mountain street, and Byron S. Hawkins of North street.

Sarah B. Perkins, 74, died Wednesday at St. Joseph's hospital. She was born in Mansfield, but moved to Uxma, N. Y. with her parents when young. At one time she taught music in this city, and made her home at the Willimantic Camp Ground.

Brief News.
 Mrs. Bert L. Hicks of Jackson street entertained a circle of the King's Daughters at her home Thursday afternoon. The members passed the afternoon sewing and planning to raise money for the Card Memorial Home for the Aged.

Miss Annie H. Smith, sister of Frank Smith, is seriously ill at the General hospital, Rochester, N. Y., where she has been a patient since last May.

Many race fans are planning to take in the second "Race of the Century" to be held at Recreation Park, Saturday. A. W. Buchanan, secretary of the town board of education, held a session Thursday at the common council chambers, to give tests to children between 14 and 16 years seeking employment certificates. The children were examined and granted certificates.

Saturday Special

How rapidly the weeks do fly away—here is Saturday again with a splendid Saturday Special for you.

During the war, every sailor and soldier was supplied with a heavy duck ditty bag, either white or navy blue, in which to carry his personal effects. These bags are thirty-six inches deep, forty inches in circumference (13 inches in diameter), finished with a heavy draw cord at the top, which runs through brass grummets; and "Uncle Sam" paid $1.80 each for them. They are especially suited for use as personal laundry bags, as clothes bags, as rag bags, as sort of a catch-all bag, to hang at the foot of the cellar stairs.

Tomorrow—we will sell them at 29c each, and there are not enough for you all, so come early for yours.

Kingston church, Wednesday evening, October 20th.
 Charles Case of Narragansett Pier, was a caller here Sunday afternoon.
 The entertainment, "Patty Makes Things Hum," given at Hazard hall, on the fair grounds, last Wednesday evening was a decided success. All played their parts splendidly. The proceeds were over $40, which is for the benefit of West Kingston church.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Freese entertained Mr. and Mrs. William Smith and son, of New London, over Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Smith lived here several years and were very popular in the neighborhood. Mr. Smith was station agent here for several years.
 Richard H. Fritow is working in Scituate this week.

Several from here attended the supper at Chestnut Hill grange Thursday evening. When the party was ready to return home one man, was unable to find his overcoat. Apparently through a mistake, some one had worn it home and left his instead. At last reports the coat has not been found nor the owner of the stray coat.
 Mr. and Mrs. Frank Woodmansee have returned home after spending their vacation with relatives in Maine.
 Samuel C. Webster, Jr., of Westport, visited relatives here Sunday afternoon. Bradford Sutton is visiting relatives in Providence.
 Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Kenyon of Unquaga, were callers on relatives here Sunday.
 Mrs. Leroy Knowles attended the Bible school convention at Pawtucket, last week Wednesday, and Thursday she attended the W. C. T. U. convention there.
 Mrs. Annie R. Webster spent Saturday in Providence.
 Hartford—Reports this week in General Chairman Francis R. Cooley of the Boy Scout campaign made the aggregate pledged $28,994.87.

Look out for the Overcoat Man Hole

It's Open.
 Because prices have dropped—a whole lot of men are going to make the mistake of paying too low a price for Overcoats.
 They are for example, going to pay $21.00, when they should pay $35.00—and along about January, when their bargains pass their dividends, they are going to be a dissatisfied lot of cold citizens.
 Why isn't it better to insure your next Winter's comfort now, by trading safe.
